

PARTNER SEARCH

Call
- Funding programme	JPICH « Conservation and Protection »
- Title & reference number	topic 2 "Sustainable protection and enhancement of values"
- EC service
- Link to the call document	http://jpi-ch.eu/2019/05/conservation-protection-and-use-joint-call-official-launch/
- Closing date	3 September 2019
Lead partner
Project title
Project objectives	To develop materials, technologies and procedures for long-term maintenance, secure access, conservation and in-situ preservation of cultural heritage.
Project actions	The consortium gathers conservation scientists, chemists, microbiologists and geologists from academic institutes and universities from Spain, Portugal and France. They develop their research activities by a preventive conservation approach of cultural heritage and work on new generation of preventive coatings for the safeguarding of Cultural Heritage artefacts and monuments.
Expertise offer	Expertise in protection and conservation in Cultural Heritage
Potential partners	- Company specialized in conservation of historical building materials and artefacts, restoration building, testing coatings in-situ. - An association which promote protection and conservation of Cultural Heritage to communities and citizens. Companies and associations could be from: Belarus, Cyprus, Czech, Republic, France, Italy, Latvia, Norway Poland, Portugal, Spain, The Netherlands, The United Kingdom
Contact	University of Reims Champagne Ardenne - GEGENAA (Laboratory on Geomaterials and Natural, Anthropogenic and Archaeological Environments) CREA 2, Esplanade Roland Garros, 51100 REIMS Cedex Stéphanie Eyssautier Stephanie.eyssautier@univ-reims.fr Phone : +33 326 773 689
Deadline for responding to the partner search	End of July 2019