

EU GLOBAL ACTION
ON SPACE

Business Coaching Service

How to benefit from the EU Global Action on Space

Funded by the European Union

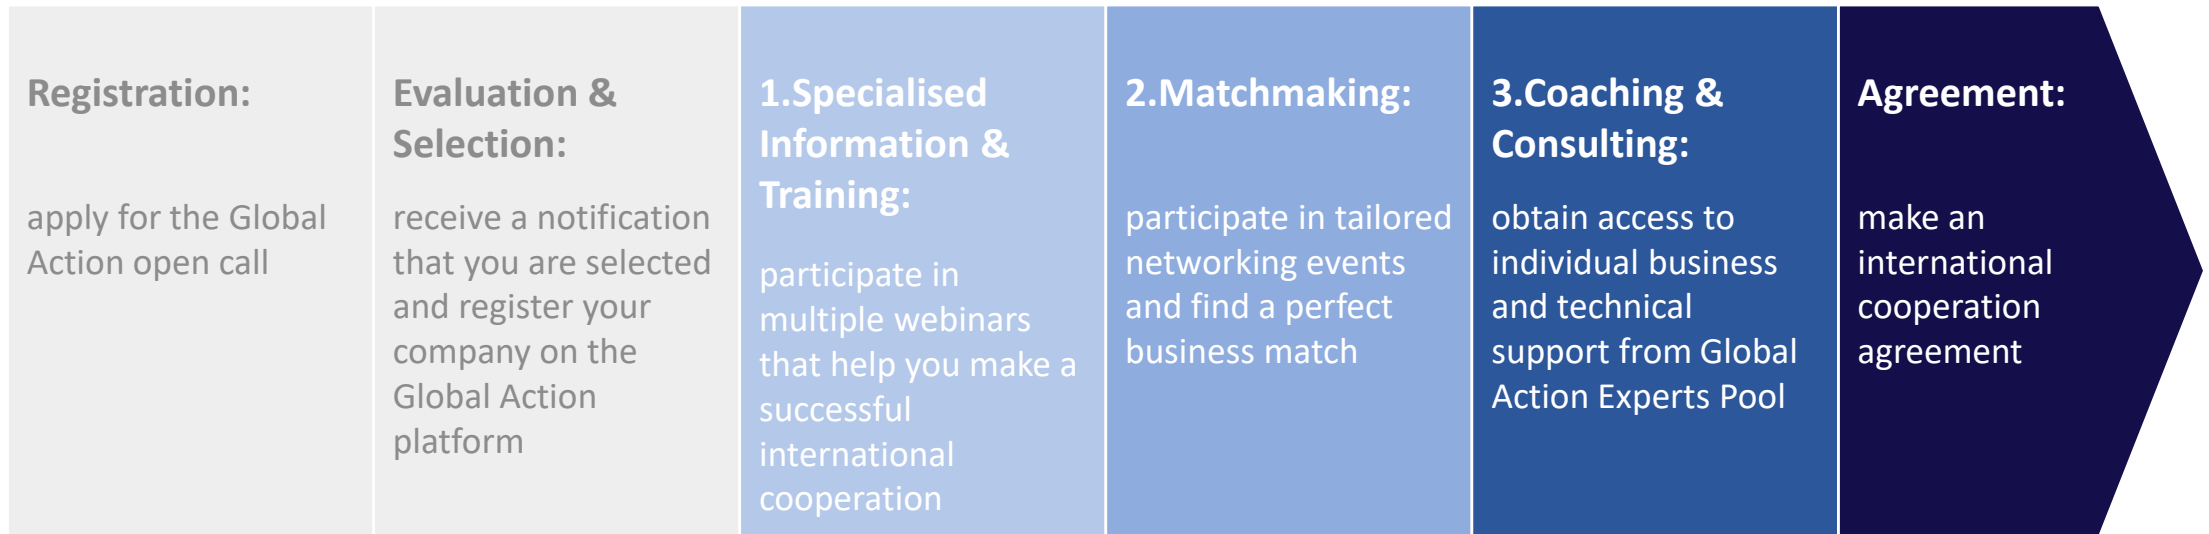

Promoting the European Union Space Programme

What is the Business Coaching Service?

What is Specialised Information & Training?

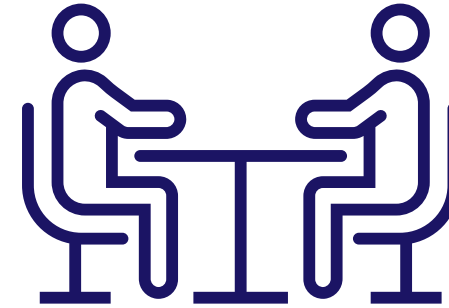

What does Matchmaking mean?

Participation in networking online events

Support in finding the right
business partner

Process of Individual Coaching

Your benefits of joining the Service

Receive tailored business and technical support

Get access to the specific markets analyses

Participate in 50+ networking and education events

Conclude international commercial agreements

Obtain access to a pool of international experts

Discover how the EU Space Programmes benefit you

How to join the Business Coaching Service

Open Call for EU Entities

December 2021 – November 2023

Eligibility criteria:

- Legally established companies, institutions or organisations
- Private or public entities that operate or are willing to operate in the space sector; use or are willing to use space data, technologies, services or applications
- Demonstrate 3 years of financial figures (turnover, net profit, total balance)
- Demonstrate or are willing to demonstrate export outside domestic market (divided into EU and non-EU)
- Priority will be given to SMEs

How to join the Business Coaching Service

Open Call for non-EU Entities

December 2021 – November 2023

Eligibility criteria:

- Legally established companies, institutions or organisations
- Private or public entities of all kinds and sizes, including entities related to the space sector, space agencies, research organisations, universities, and technology centres not subject to restrictive measures by the EU
- Demonstrates 3 years of financial figures (turnover, net profit, total balance)

Questions?

businesscoaching@eu-global-space.eu

