

EURES Targeted Mobility Scheme (TMS)

Fostering job mobility in Europe

Funded by the Employment and Social Innovation (EaSi) programme, the EURES Targeted Mobility Scheme (TMS) is designed to promote and support job mobility projects taking place within the territory of the EU Member States, Iceland and Norway.

To achieve this mission, EURES TMS offers a wide range of free services and financial support measures which are available to both employers and jobseekers.

In particular:

- it supports jobseekers in finding work, traineeship or apprenticeship opportunities in a European country other than the country of residence
- it helps employers throughout the process of selecting and recruiting candidates for their vacancies
